

Regional Institute of English, Sector 32 C, Chandigarh

Under the series of Workshops on Basics of Research and Dissertation Writing is organizing

Workshop II: Theoretical Concepts in Research

Dr. Saumya Sharma
Resource Person

Dr. Saumya Sharma is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Linguistics at The English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU), Lucknow Campus. She was a guest faculty at I.I.T. Kanpur for a year where she taught a course on communication skills and composition. Her doctoral research was on discourse analysis of drama using concepts from psychoanalysis. Her research interests include examining the discourse-gender interface, with focus on psychology. She has published in the areas of stylistics, discourse analysis and English language teaching and her recent publications are Discourse and Psychology: An Introduction (Routledge 2020), Language, Gender and Ideology: Constructions of Femininity for Marriage (Routledge, London 2018) and Common Errors in Everyday English (Oxford University Press 2017),

Click here for registration

Date: 04th September, 2020

Time: 11:00 a.m

Convener: Dr. Vandana Lunyal, Director

Coordinator: Dr. Jyoti Singh, Associate Professor